

Please note that it is highly recommended to use an adjustable gas block when using a .300 Fireball barrel to achieve function with any and all loads, including subsonic and suppressed rifles.

You may have to increase the gas port hole diameter to ensure proper function and cycling.

If you are using a barrel that is less than 16" long, all NFA rules apply.

Questions? Please call or E-mail us:

(406) 752-4253 or sales@si-defense.com